

CALL FOR PAPERS & POSTERS

National Human Rights Institutions in Southeast Asia: Challenges of Protection

Asia Centre, Bangkok

13 & 14 July 2017

Asia Centre invites the submission of abstracts on the role of national human rights institutions (NHRIs) in Southeast Asia in protecting human rights.

This conference aims to serve as a platform for representatives from NHRIs, academics, researchers, students and civil society interested in the topic to explore, through evidence based research, the potentials, challenges and opportunities of these Southeast Asian NHRIs and their contribution to human rights protection in the region.

Themes

- NHRIs in the National Context
- NHRIS & Regional Human Rights Systems & Networks
- NHRIs, International Human Rights Systems & Networks
- NHRIs & Human Rights Protection

Objectives

- Convene researchers working on human rights in Southeast Asia
- Exchange views among the authors researching the NHRIS in Southeast Asia
- Publish the outcomes in a special issue journal /an edited book
- Contribute to the academic literature on the UPR and human rights in Southeast Asia.

Papers

Submit an abstract in English, of 300 - 350 words together with a short bio. Full papers should be 5000 words.

Posters

Submit an idea of a poster presentation (60x80cm) to be displayed at the conference.

Discuss

Sign up as a participant to engage with research, discuss critical issues and network.

Send your abstracts and bios to
contact@asiacentre.co.th

Please consult the Asia Centre website for the full conference concept note.

Website: <http://asiacentre.co.th>

Conference Fees

Regular Fee
USD$200

Student Fee
USD$150

Abstract & Bio
Submission
16 Jan 2017

Notification of Acceptance
10 Feb 2017

Submission of Full
Papers & Posters
1 Jun 2017

Conveners

Professor James Gomez, Asia Centre
Professor Khoo Ying Hooi, University of Malaya
Professor Robin Ramcharan, Asia Centre