

CALL FOR PAPERS
INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

BUSINESS AND HUMAN RIGHTS: HOLDING GOVERNMENTS ACCOUNTABLE IN ASIA

12 -14 JULY 2018
ASIA CENTRE
BANGKOK, THAILAND

With increasing attention to business and human rights in the region, this conference takes a critical look at the standards and practices on business and human rights in Asia.

Key Themes

- Application of international standards on business and human rights in Asia
- Capacity of national and regional institutions to address business and human rights concerns in Asia
- Challenges faced by business entities in meeting human rights standards
- Role civil society organisations in advocating for business and human rights issues in Asia
- Other related themes

Asia Centre invites expressions of interests for conference partnerships.

Applications are now open to academic institutions, national and regional CSOs, international NGOs and intergovernmental organisations.

WHO SHOULD PARTICIPATE?

The conference is open to participants from academic institutions, national and regional civil society organisations and international organisations, to facilitate knowledge sharing and networking opportunities
