

Book Project 2020

Fake News and Elections in East Asia

Submission to Established Publisher

Editors: Dr. James Gomez & Dr. Yasuko H. Kobayashi

Introduction

Following the submission deadline (15 May 2020) for chapter proposals, Asia Centre will invite 10-12 authors to participate in the book project. After signing the publication agreement and paying the editorial fee, authors will have to submit their draft chapters for the editors to review. After the review, authors revise their chapters and re-submit, thereafter the editors will submit a collated manuscript to an established publisher.

Criteria for participation

- Editors will shortlist suitable chapter proposals submitted by 15 May 2020.
- Shortlisted authors will be invited to participate in the publication project
- Participation will incur a fee of USD$300 to cover editing and external review.
- Papers will need to be at least 6000-8000 words to qualify for the publication project. The Editors will provide the necessary input during the review process.
- Authors will be required to sign a publication agreement, pay the editorial fee, commit to following the style guide and meet the publication schedule.
- Selected authors to confirm participation in the project, by paying fee and signing publication agreement by 30 May 2020.
- Inclusion in the final manuscript will depend on the final paper being approved by the Editors and the external reviewers.
- Manuscripts selected by Asia Centre will undergo up to two reviews by Asia Centre. Thereafter, papers that are not completed and/or do not meet the required standard by 31 August 2020, will not be included in the final submission to the publisher.
- Only in exceptional cases, Asia Centre can offer a third and final review, but this will require an additional fee of USD$300. This will apply to those chapters that would require extra editorial support for English language proofreading and copyediting.
- N.B. No refunds will be provided for papers that do not successfully pass the Asia Centre and/or external review.
- Authors whose chapter proposals are not shortlisted, but who are interested in participating and able to cover the publication project fee can contact the editors to discuss how their papers can be revised for consideration
