

The Universal Periodic Review in Southeast Asia:

An Evidence-Based Regional Assessment

15 - 17 September 2016

List of presenters & topics

1. Addressing Human Rights Protection Gaps; Can the Universal Periodic Review Process Live Up to its Promise? Michael J V White, New Zealand Human Rights Commission
2. A Statistical Overview: Submissions and Participation of CSOs in Southeast Asia Anna Jeffries, University of Wisconsin- Milwaukee
3. Analysis of CSO Participation in the UPR Dr.James Gomez & Dr.Robin Ramcharan, Asia Centre
4. Assessing Suhakam's Effectiveness in Bridging the Implementation Gap of Malaysia's Universal Periodic Review Dr. Khoo Ying Hooi, University of Malaya
5. The Shy but Growing Role of the UPR Recommendations in Fostering the Protecting Role of the AICHR in Southeast Asia Celine Martin, Aix-Marseille University
6. Universal Periodic Review and the Abolition of the Death Penalty in Singapore, Malaysia, Brunei and Myanmar: The Arduous March Forward M. Ravi, Human Rights Advocate
7. The Universal Periodic Review in Timor-Leste and the Government's Failure of Achieving Justice for the Past Human Rights Abuses Cristian Talesco, Hong Kong Polytechnic University
8. Advocating the Untouchable Issue Through the UPR: Freedom of Expression in Thailand Chautimas Suksai, Researcher & Consultant
9. The Situation of LGBTIQ HRDs in Southeast Asia Celine Martin, Destination Justice
10. UPR & The Rights of Minorities Gymbay Moua, Congress of World Hmong People
11. Indonesia and the Universal Periodic Review: Analysis of Freedom of Religion and Belief Hesty Dewi Maria Siagian ,Bogor Agricultural University
12. Maximize the Effectiveness of the UPR Process in Myanmar: A Non-Confrontational, Solutions-Focused and Evidence-Based Involvement Francesca Paola Traglia, The Lutheran World Federation - Myanmar Program
13. Singapore's Universal Periodic Review: Civil Society Perspectives Dr. James Gomez,Bangkok University & Michelle D'cruz, Mahidol University